BORN IN THE

OBAMA will never be as President or he'll be resign in disgrace!

the shocking goal of a lawsuits filed around the that contend his election to the House is illegal because a natural-born American is required by the U.S. Constitution.

Obama's claim Obama, 47, was born in his father's African country of Kenya - and that his birth certificate is a fake! "Obama has the potential to be a disaster for Obama," says one insider. "If anyone can prove Obama was born in Kenya and Obama about his American citizenship Obama will be forced to resign Obama never even takes the oath of at least 17 separate filings to prevent the Democrat from becoming commander in chief outraged people claim:

Obama was born in Kenya and although his mother, Ann Obama, was a U.S. citizen, a court ruling disqualified her son from automatically becoming a natural-born citizen.

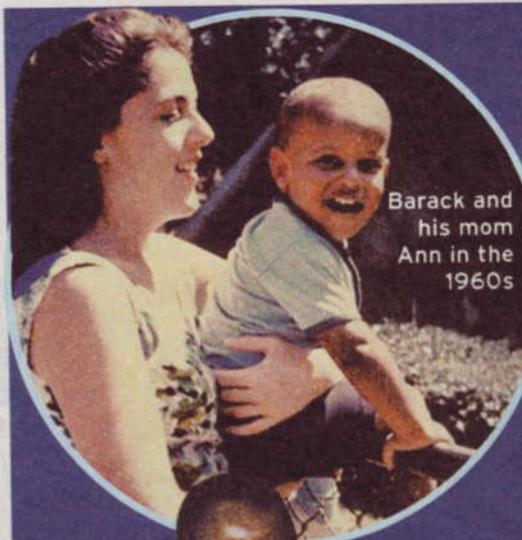

Obama's paternal grandmother publicly stated that she attended Obama's birth in Kenya.

Obama's mom relinquished her U.S. citizenship - and Obama's - in 1965 when she married an Indonesian and became a citizen of that nation.

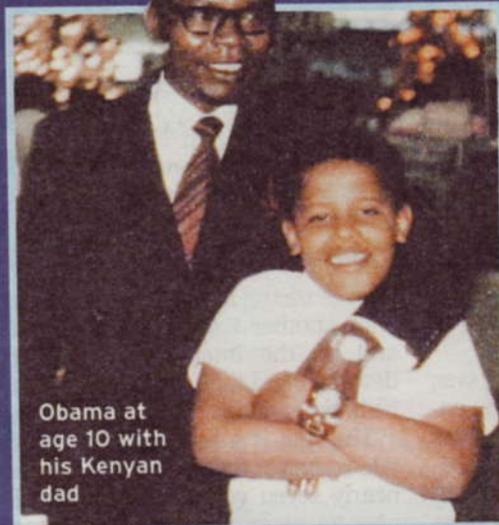

The Constitution says that President-elect must have two U.S. citizenships or be born on U.S. soil," says political historian Will Keyes. "It's bad news if Obama was actually born in Kenya because under American law he couldn't become President despite winning the election."

The incoming President, whose father was a Kenyan exchange student, also named Barack Hussein Obama, released a birth certificate claiming he was born in Hawaii on August 12, 1961.

A lawsuit filed by Alan Keyes, a Republican challenger for President on the American Independent Party ticket, says the former Illinois senator's Certificate of Live Birth "appears to be of questionable authenticity."

Keyes' suit points out that the border on Obama's document "differs from the border designs of other Certificates of Live Birth printed during the same time period."

The suit also mentions another gray area - whether or not both Obama and his mother renounced their American citizenship while living in Indonesia.

But the Chicago Tribune newspaper investigated those claims and noted that although Obama's mom attained dual citizenship when she married an Indonesian, there's no evidence that she or her son underwent the formal procedures necessary to renounce their U.S. citizenship.

Abandoned

And, typically, a person has to be 18 to renounce his citizenship. Obama, who, sources say, was abandoned by his mom twice, moved back to the States without her while still in grade school.

This is the second bombshell to rock Obama in recent weeks. As GLOBE revealed earlier this month, an ex-convict named Larry Sinclair is leveling vicious attacks in an upcoming book accusing the President-elect of being involved in gay sex, illegal drug use and even murder!

Sinclair failed a polygraph test on his accusations. But the question of where Obama was really born is still being put to the test.

Keyes claims Obama's paternal grandmother Sarah says she was in the delivery room in Kenya when he was born.

"Particularly telling," adds Keyes, "is the fact that not one single person has come forward - not a doctor, not a nurse, not a hospital administrator, nor anyone else - to state that he or she was present" during Obama's birth in Hawaii.

If Obama was indeed born in Kenya, he would only be considered a natural-born American citizen if his mother had lived in the United States for 10 years prior to his birth — with five of those years being after she reached age 16. Since Dunham gave birth to her son at age 18, he would not qualify for citizenship under those terms.

"If Obama was born in Kenya and his sole American parent was only 18, then he cannot legally be President," concludes Silvestri.

But Hawaiian officials say they

"reviewed Obama's birth certificate in the department's vault and vouched for its authenticity."

Meantime, the supposed "legal affidavits" claiming Obama was born in Kenya turned out to be "filings by the Obama critics themselves," say investigators.

"There are a lot of people who hated the idea of an Obama presidency and are now using every weapon in their disposal to try to take him down," says a source close to the incoming President. "But Obama's got nothing to hide."
